"Tab" and Sub-Tab	Use-Case	Link to Grid	Type and Proposed Changes	Standard/Implementation/Specification	Standards Process Maturity	Implementation Maturity	Adoption Level	Federally required	Cost	Test Tool Availability	Limitations Dependencies and Preconsiderations for Consideration - Insert a Bullet 4
Section III: Standards and implementation Specifications for Services - "Push" Exchange	An Unsolicited "Push" of Clinical Health Information to a Known Destination and Information System User	https://www.healthit.gov/isa/unsolicited-push-clinical-health-information-a-known-destination-and-information-system-user	Standard (Addition)	Trusted Instant Messaging Plus (TIM+)	Draft Standard for Trial Use	In Development	Feedback Requested	No	Free		DirectTrust Standards announced the availability of this Standard for Trial Use on July 30, 2020. This Standard provides secure instantaneous communication via the XMPP standard between servers allowing for federated trust communities and cross-platform communication. The draft standard supports text-based communication, file transfers, group messaging, and "presence". Future versions of the Standard are expected to support audio and video communications.